Four Corners is an integrated English course for adults and young adults who want to use English to communicate effectively in daily life. Easy and enjoyable to teach, Four Corners combines proven communicative methodology with a practical outcomes-based approach. The course features a clear presentation of vocabulary, a thorough grammar syllabus, and an everyday functional language lesson in every unit together with systematic practice of all four skills. Four Corners places special emphasis on helping students become confident and competent speakers of English. Speaking activities at the end of every lesson, tied to clearly labelled measurable outcomes, enable students to see the results of their learning and help them see their progress.

讓我們一探究竟四個“C”的厲害！

Can-do

每個單元課程中皆有一個明確的「語言能力指標 (Can-do)」，確保教學成效。

The Four Corners syllabus was informed by the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR) for languages. Putting practical outcomes at the heart of the syllabus ensure that the language and situations covered prepare students for life outside the classroom.

Clarity

單元架構清晰、課程大綱詳盡，系統性地結合日常生活用語及聽說讀寫技巧練習。

Every unit in Four Corners contains four lessons: A, B, C, and D - each of which has its own learning outcome and culminates in a personalized speaking activity.

Confidence

學生透過每個單元的練習題提升語言和文化競爭力，有效增強溝通信心。

A final speaking activity encourages students to personalize the new language, and is tied to a specific learning outcome. Linguistic and cultural competencies help students build confidence to communicate effectively in social, educational, and work-related situations and purposes.

Communication

系統性循環的單元架構，讓學生充分練習單字和文法，並將所學運用於日常生活的溝通中。

Careful and systematic recycling and exposure to new language enable students to use grammatically well-formed sentences in effective communication.

- ◎ 文法規則與例句引用均參照「劍橋語料庫」(Cambridge English Corpus) 來編寫，有效解決教材文本與真實用語的隔閡，其中「避免常見錯誤」單元，有效提醒學生避免文法錯誤，並依據語料庫資料，收錄「常見學術字彙表 (Academic Word List)」，附於各級數學生課本後方。

Grammar and Beyond is the newest contextualized grammar series, offering real-world information, a strong emphasis on practice, and clear connections between grammar and writing.

Grammar and Beyond is informed by a collection of over one billion words of authentic language. This ensures that students learn grammar the way it is used in real spoken and written English. The four-level series places special emphasis on grammar for writing. As they prepare to write, students practice editing common mistakes—based on an extensive corpus of student writing. Then, students apply the grammar in a writing task, making a clear connection between what they study and how they write.

Grammar Presentation
These sections include easy-to-understand summaries, clear charts, and concise descriptions of use, as well as Data from the Real World, which teach students about the most common forms and uses of the target grammar.

Intriguing Reading
Each unit presents the grammar in an engaging context, using contemporary readings to set the unit's theme.

7 Supply-chain management (SCM)

7.1 Theory: SCM and logistics

Learning outcomes

- Learn about the theory of supply-chain management.
- Use collocations connected with supply-chain management.
- Design a supply chain.

7.3 Skills: External negotiating

Learning outcomes

- Negotiate with people from other companies.
- Structure spoken language in face-to-face negotiations and meetings.
- Discuss complaints at work.

Introduction

1 Would you describe yourself as someone who complains a lot or very little? What or who do you often complain about? Why do you complain?

2 Look at the following list of customer complaints. In pairs, put them in order in terms of the size of the problem. Then discuss what you think the company should do about each one.

a Customers have complained that several of your sales staff are rude to them.

b Many customers say your products are not as fashionable as they used to be.

c One manager was seen sleeping at his desk by a customer.

d You receive many complaints about the high price of your products.

e Customers have said your shops open too late in the morning.

f A group of customers is taking your company to court about product reliability.

3 In pairs, choose one of the above situations and have a mini-role play: Student A is the customer and Student B is a concerned and apologetic manager.

Intercultural analysis

Whether people apologise or not can vary according to culture, as well as personality. In your culture, do you think people would apologise in the following situations? Why/Why not?

- You crash your car, but it isn't clear whose fault it is.
- You accidentally bang into someone on a crowded train.
- You are late for work because the train was delayed.
- You leave a client at work because you made a mistake.

Skills

Skills lessons are based on real recorded communications from companies around the world and allow learners to understand how business people really speak in a bid to help them perform successfully when they enter the world of work. The Cambridge and Nottingham Business English Corpus has been used extensively to inform the content of these lessons.

Theory

In the Theory lessons, students gain an understanding of key business principles and ideas - presented by lecturers and professors from some of the world's leading education institutions, such as the Cambridge Judge Business School, the ESB Business School in Munich and the Stanford Graduate School of Business.

Practice

The analysis of real companies (including Nokia, Renault-Nissan, Saint-Gobain, IKEA, The BBC, and Unilever) in the Practice lessons gives students an insight into the reality of today's business world and shows how business theory is applied.

Your Space

Martyn Hobbs and Julia Starr Keddle

BEGINNER TO PRE-INTERMEDIATE

- ▶ 80-90 teaching hours each level, extendable to 150
- ◎ Your Space 全新系列共有三個級數，採循序漸進方式設計，著重聽、說、讀、寫四大技能發展，並鼓勵學生自主學習，打造個人化的英語學習世界。
- ◎ 課程主題新穎，貼近時下生活，提升學生學習意願。單元架構清楚，頁面標示明瞭，方便老師教學。
- ◎ Get it right! 單元由劍橋國際語料庫彙編而成，幫助不同程度的學生解決問題。

Your Space is a new three-level course with a positive and practical approach to learning English. The course presents language step by step through stimulating contexts, follows up with language analysis and then gives students the "space" to personalise that language by describing their own world. It creates an interface between the familiar world of pre- to early teens and the exciting and challenging experiences of the wider world.

- A clear unit structure and well-signposted pages make it possible to teach off the page.
- "Get it right!" sections informed by the Cambridge Learner Corpus help students tackle problem areas common to learners of their level.
- A focus on skills development, learner strategies and functional language encourages learner autonomy and effective oral and written communication.
